DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The reply filed on November 19, 2007 is not fully responsive to the prior Office Action because of the following omission(s) or matter(s):

2. The election was made to more than one of the restricted species. Applicant elected the species of Figs. 27-33. As noted in the Restriction sent on September 24, 2007, each of Figs. 27-33 is an independent or distinct species because they are structurally different embodiments. Applicant is required to elect from the following distinct species:

- a. Figs. 1-5,
- b. Figs. 6, 7
- c. Figs. 8A, 8B
- d. Figs. 11, 12
- e. Fig. 13
- f. Fig. 14
- g. Fig. 15
- h. Fig. 21
- i. Fig. 27
- j. Fig. 28
- k. Fig. 29
- l. Fig. 30
- m. Fig. 31

- n. Fig. 32
- o. Fig. 33
- p. Fig. 35
- q. Fig. 36
- r. Fig. 38
- s. Fig. 40

As noted in the previous Restriction Notice, Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claims appear generic to all species.

There is an examination and search burden for these patentably distinct species due to their mutually exclusive characteristics. The species require a different field of search (e.g., searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries); and/or the prior art applicable to one species would not likely be applicable to another species; and/or the species are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the species unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other species.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141.

Note: applicant is still required to elect between Group I, claims 1-42, drawn to relief forms and architectural trim, and Group II, claims 43-60 drawn to methods of making relief forms as presented in the Restriction Requirement sent out September 24, 2007. Upon election of Group I or Group II, applicant is required to make an election of one of species a. through s. above and identify the corresponding claims of the elected Group I or Group II.

3. See 37 CFR 1.111. Since the above-mentioned reply appears to be bona fide, applicant is given ONE (1) MONTH or THIRTY (30) DAYS from the mailing date of this notice, whichever is longer, within which to supply the omission or correction in order to avoid abandonment. EXTENSIONS OF THIS TIME PERIOD MAY BE GRANTED UNDER 37 CFR 1.136(a).
